ETERNAL LIFE

52' (GER, ENG subs) , 30' (GER)

Mankind has always dreamed of eternal life . Never before have we been closer to fulfilment than today.

In the last century alone, average life expectancy has doubled. A lot of money and research is being invested in this ambitious goal. Tycoons in Silicon Valley are investing billions in companies to research ageing, slow it down or even stop it. Do we deserve immortality or would it ultimately make us unhappy forever?
