WOLFGANG SCHÄUBLE - FACING THE EURO CRISIS

As a convinced European politician, Wolfgang Schäuble is on a mission to save the Euro.

As he travels through Europe with the mission to negotiate the renunciation of a Greek bankrupt, filmmaker Stephan Lamby documents his highs and his lows, his struggles and his successes, his determination to achieve his goal. Take a peek over the shoulder of Germany's minister of finance as he dashes through Europe negotiating the renunciation of a bankrupt Greece. In the international media, he is often compared to a Nazi; this film, however, gives insights to Wolfgang Schäuble's thoughts and efforts to manage this critical challenge for the Eurozone.
