GERMANY'S WEST FROM ABOVE

3 x 45' (GER, ENG subs)

Germany is famous for its diverse regions that house unique characteristics incomparable to anywhere else.

Witness three regions from above through the use of breathtaking arial shots. Take a trip to the peaceful Lower Rhine region deep in the west, known for its calmness. Visit the Münsterland region and it's city Münster, which in 2004 grabbed the title of "most livable city in the world." And travel to the Sauerland, which has the reputation as one of the most beautiful landscapes in Germany. Come with us on this breathtaking journey, where we explore these regions and their individual characteristics that make them what they are today.
