LOST PLACES: ADRENALINE AND ADVENTURE

30' (GER, ENG subs)

Once full of life, they are now abandoned and forgotten. Follow us around the world discovering these "lost places".

Urban explorers Kai, Mike, and Luca guide us on this journey, providing an eye-opening experience of places long forgotten. Several months a year, they tour through half of Europe and Asia, searching for these sites lost to time. These range from castles, former Stasi prisons, wrecked airplanes, and more.

Stemming from the French Atlantic coast all the way to Kazakhstan. As the aesthetics of these places decay, a new type of morbid charm encapsulates the area, serving as a reminder that nothing remains unaffected by time. "Urban Exploration" has now become a fashionable trend, due to social media networks like Facebook and Instagram. It is now possible to earn good money thanks to these lost places.
