WHO OWNS THE WATER?

45' (GER)

Is water a commodity – or a basic human right? This investigative doc follows the efforts of global corporations like Nestle, Coca-Cola and Pepsi to corner the water market worldwide.

Water is our most important resource. A battle is already underway over who owns the world-wide water reserves. Several global conglomerates are in a race to control the best sources of potable water. We follow the water trail around the world, exposing the congloms' ruthless power play with the liquid gold.
