TURNING POINTS: HOW CRISES MAKE US STRONG

30' (GER, ENG subs)

Can crises make us stronger and give our lives a new meaning?

We accompany two people who are struggling with serious life crises. Joachim Schoss was physically disabled after an accident, and Youtube star Philipp Mickenbecker was diagnosed with cancer for the third time at the age of 23. Candidly and authentically, they both talk about their most difficult moments in life. What help do they accept and what do they manage alone? What helps them to not lose faith? What advice do they give others who are at a low point in their lives?
