

HISTORY

SURVIVING THE ANGEL OF DEATH

90' (GER)

A survivor of the infamous Auschwitz doctor Mengele tells her story for the first time

This moving documentary records the conversations held between Gerda Schrage, a survivor of the infamous Auschwitz doctor Mengele and journalist Knut Elstermann. It took 60 years, but Gerda Schrage finally broke her silence. For the very first time, the sweet Jewish lady from New York told her entire life story and revealed her most intimate and devastating secrets- the horrors that have haunted her for decades and which she never even revealed to her husband and son.

Original Title: Gerdas Schweigen

Year: 2008

Produced by: Zeitsprung Film, ARD

