THE SON WHO NEVER WAS

60' (ENG, GER), 45' (GER)

The tragic story of a Polish man whose identity was assumed by a spy for the Polish secret service, who infiltrated West Germany's civil service, where he remained active for years.

As an extraordinary untold chapter of Cold War espionage, this documentary reveals how secret services in the Eastern Block systematically stole the identities of orphaned and abandoned children and used them to create aliases for their foreign agents.
