CHEFS TO THE RESCUE

199 x 45' (GER, 2 Eps ENG subs) long running series

A team of four top chefs give lending hands to restaurants in culinary crisis.

For some restaurant owners these "men in white" are their last glimmer of hope in an otherwise desperate situation. The experts give restaurants and their kitchen crews, new perspectives in the ways of culinary delight and jazz up the atmosphere to entice new customers. They use their passion and drive to put the restaurants back on the path of success and make sure they stay on it by checking in on the progress of those they have already helped. Chefs to the Rescue, there's a light at the end of the oven!
