BOLIVAR'S DREAM

52' (GER, FRE, SPA, ENG subs)

This documentary is on the search for the political and social heritage of Simon Bolívar, who is celebrated as the liberator of South America.

Since the capitulation of the Spanish colonial power, South America has been exploited by North America and Europe. But times are changing - South America has a young, educated population united by digitization. As they look back to Bolívar's values of community and brotherhood, a united South America seems possible.
