STREETPHILOSOPHY

S1: 4 x 30' / S2: 10 x 30' (GER, FRE, ENG subs)

From the sanctuary of home to the streets of Kreuzberg and Neukölln: Streetphilosophy takes philosophical questions through the modern city.

Berlin is a city which stands for individualism. Hence, its natives are constantly looking for self-realization and self-affirmation. Plus, as a city where lifestyle is a guideline on how to live, it compels everyone to ask: Who am I? In this series, Jonas is looking for hotspots on the streets of Berlin, where philosophical questions may arise. Far away from the philosophical ivory tower.
