CONCRETE LOVE - THE BÖHM FAMILY

60', 90' (GER, ENG subs)

Gottfried Böhm is regarded as Germany's preeminent architect. His father, wife and three sons are all architects as well. Professional collaboration within the family appears to be an equally fertile and fragile proposition.

Gottfried, now in his nineties, still contributes daily to current planning and construction projects. The son of a master builder of churches, is the patriarch of a modern architecture dynasty to which his three sons Stephan, Peter und Paul now belong. The film paints an intimate and pointed portrait of the complexity and inseparability of life, love, faith, art and architecture.
