

THE WORLD IN 30 MINUTES

ASIA - OLD MAN'S LAND

30' (GER)

In Japan, more diapers are sold for use by seniors than by babies and there is a market for senior pornography.

The reason: Japan's population is the oldest in the world. Other parts of Asia and the wider world are predicted to soon also face such a problem. In Singapore, the first countermeasure has been put in place: no retirement age. If you want to work and can work, you are allowed to work and should work. The challenges and chances of an elderly society.

Original Title: Im Reich der Hundertjährigen – Asiens alternde Gesellschaften

Year: 2017

Produced by: NZZ

