

THE WORLD IN 30 MINUTES

THE MODERN MAN

30' (GER)

The old, traditional image of men as provider and protector no longer holds in our current society.

There is a search for a new way to define masculinity. But the freedom to choose is causing some men to stumble under the stress. And with the evolution of the modern women in the business world, men are finding it more difficult to set themselves apart. Can the modern man forgo career advancement to play a fair role in the family or will the pendulum swing back to traditional gender roles?
