

CURRENT AFFAIRS

LA SAVINE – NO WAY OUT

30' (GER)

Life in the northern districts of Marseille is like that of the Third world. One such district is La Savine. Sequestered on a hill, La Savine is a fortress for heavy drug trade.

There is one way in and one way out – nobody can enter or leave without being noticed. The street poses constant threat- children as young as 12 are recruited by the clan. The residents are also compelled to live by their rules, because to disobey is to endanger your life. You've got to be a fighter to survive in these neighbourhoods. For the first time ever a film crew has made its way into the district.

Picture © WDR

Original Title: Hier kommst du nicht mehr raus

Year: 2016

Produced by: WDR

