CHARLES V: RULING EMPIRES

5 x 30' (SPA, ENG subs)

It's said that the empire of Charles V was so great that "the sun never set" - follow the most important moments of Charles V's life in this docu-series.

Charles V ruled over the Holy Roman Empire and the Spanish Empire, as well as the lands of the former Duchy of Burgundy. His empire towered from South America throughout Europe up to Asia. Ever since the tender age of 15, Charles V was the first King of Spain and the first Habsburg emperor to achieve the status of world power. The vast number of titles he held were a prominent sign of his great power, but also led to numerous conflicts and wars.

This five part series takes its viewers on Charles' first trip to Castile, his rivalry with Luther and his landing in Laredo on his very last trip through Spain.
