

PEOPLE . PLACES

ON A JOURNEY TO...

8 x 30' (GER)

...remote places, famous cities or cultural peculiarities. In this series we show how megacities literally emerge from nowhere - some even grow out of the sea.

We visit lonely glacier conquerors, genealogical researchers and humorous authors in Iceland, as well as the diverse dachas in the vastness of Russia. We go to a country which, after war and destruction, is now one of the safest and cleanest countries in Africa: Rwanda. The young, mostly well-educated women in the capital Kigali show us how to get ahead with innovative ideas and long-term thinking.
