WHO'S BEAUTIFUL?

5 x 30' (GER, ENG subs)

We want to find out who is considered beautiful where in the world and why. Journalist Julia is on a mission to see what people are willing to do for their ideal of beauty.

In Ethiopia she lets herself be “barbecued” and meets the most elegant gentlemen in the Republic of Congo, but she also learns that knitting Iceland-sweaters might just be as good for your beauty as distributing rice to monks in Asian monasteries. Julia explores different ideals in an amusing and entertaining way.
