A GOAL FOR FREEDOM - WOMEN'S FOOTBALL IN KABUL

45' (GER, ENG subs)

Madina Azizi is a football coach and former national player of Afghanistan. She lives in one of the most dangerous cities in the world and has to live daily with the rigid role models of a very traditional and patriarchal society.

Football for girls is still a taboo for many Afghan families. Madina Azizi fights against this every day - against all resistance. We accompany Madina Azizi and her team in their dangerous everyday life as footballers in Kabul. And thus show the struggle of an entire generation of young women in traditional patriarchal Afghanistan for a little more self-determination.
