

PEOPLE . PLACES

CHILOÉ - WOODEN ISLAND

5 x 30' (SPA, ENG subs)

Chiloé is a unique archipelago off the coast of Chile, in the Pacific Ocean. It is known for its fascinating architecture where nearly all the houses and buildings were built with wood, and wooden shingles.

The incredible wooden churches built in the 18th century by local carpenters are declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Carpenters, architects, artisans and inhabitants of Chiloé accompany us around the island. Follow us to the second largest island in Chile that lies parallel the Andes Mountains and discover this magical world of myths and legends, unique folklore and culinary traditions.

Original Title: Chiloé

Year: 2018

Produced by: Glaciar Films

